Slovakia can nowadays boast with some excellent Skiparken. They not only provide wide and safe ski slopes with modern ski facilities but also grounds for the free skiing and snowboard freeriding. The best ski resort with the largest selection of untracked trails is Chopok in the Low Tatras. This mountain is 2004m high and is connected with cable car from north and south. From the summit can be reached easily and quickly pristine slopes, troughs and culoars. The runs are long with over 1000 meters of altitude difference. Some easy, some difficult to extreme. This is 4**** Freeriding resort with hundrets of possibilities devided in 7 freeriding zones. We organize here guides for beginners as well as for the advanced ski - and snowboard freerider. We have a fixed date for a short camp with good accommodation. But it is possible, another appointment with us.

Tourplan:

1. Day - Arrival at the Hotel. Presenting the weekend freeriding camp in detail.

2. Day - First quick instructions. First touch off the slopes. Try steaper couloars. In the afternoon backcountry to peak Dumbier (2049m) and freeride all the way down to valley.
