The river Mosoni Danube is a long arm of the Danube between Bratislava and Gyor. Clean water, a lively stream, lush vegetation reminiscent of the jungle, where the turtles, wild animals, water hunts, divers and herons have found their home. Gravel beaches and many romantic corners. A paradise for swimming and swimming. The canoeing is an excursion into the world of silence, love and cosiness. It provides a close contact with untouched nature.

"My idea was quite different. I did not believe that such a natural paradise is only 60 km from Vienna," said Uta Leutner, a Viennese when paddling on the canoe.
