The village Telgart is 891 m over the sea level below the pass Besnik where the long Hron Valley comes to an end. It is ideal starting point. Closely around are 5 different mountain ranges. The region dominated by the Kralova hola (1998 m), the highest peak in the eastern part of the Low Tatras. Southwest is Muranska Planina National Park with his gorgeous meadows, 200 - 600 m high rock cliffs and steep kalk rock formations. In the south are mountains Stolické Hills with its highest peak Stolica (1480). In the east is hidden the National Park Slovak Paradise. And between these two mountain ranges begins the mighty Ox mountains (Volovske Hills). Surroundings of the village Telgart formy rich meadows, mild disposals and meanders of the river Hron. The village was burned down in 1944 and after the worldwar II rebuilt.
